

LOCAL DOTS

Remember the Camden-Lancaster football game Friday afternoon.

The Civic League will meet next Wednesday, November 10, instead of tomorrow.

Cotton is bringing 11½ cents a pound here today and cotton seed 55 cents per bushel.

Rev. J. W. Little of Marshville, N. C., began a meeting at the Charlesboro church last Sunday.

School will open at Jones X Roads on Monday, November 8th, with Miss Inez Robinson in charge.

The Dry Creek school will open Monday, November 8, and the teachers, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Green, ask that the children enter promptly on the first day.

The Lord's Supper will be administered at old Waxhaw church on next Sunday, November 7, services beginning on Friday next. All are cordially invited to be present at these services.

Our mill correspondent reported last Tuesday that Miss Barnett Gheht had accepted a position with Mr. M. Poliakoff. This is a mistake. Miss Gheht is with Hirschs, where she will be glad to meet her many friends.

The many friends of the old Confederate veteran, Mr. J. Montgomery Caskey of Pleasant Hill, will regret to learn that he is very ill. He has been in failing health for several years and his recovery is despaired of.

The teachers and trustees of Lancaster county are asked to meet next Friday, School Day, at 11 o'clock in the Central graded school auditorium for the purpose of organizing a county Rural School Improvement Association.

The sale of the Farmers' Warehouse property on the Southern Railway, at the foot of French street, which was advertised for sale yesterday by the directors of the Farmers' Union Warehouse Company, was postponed until another sales day.

In addition to the presence of the school children of Lancaster county, who have all been granted holiday for "School Day" at our county fair, the Port Law school is also coming over in a body. We gladly welcome these good Chester neighbors and hope others still will follow their example.

Mr. C. D. Jones returned Friday from New York, accompanied by Mrs. Jones, who has been undergoing treatment there for several months past. Mrs. Jones has been quite ill, but is much better now. Her friends are glad to welcome her home again and hope for a complete restoration to health and strength.

As the Sims and the Camp Creek schools have been consolidated, giving the one school in school district No. 15, it has been decided to open the consolidated school in the Camp Creek school next Monday. As soon as the new building, upon which work will soon begin, is erected, it will be occupied by the patrons of both schools. The new building will have four rooms and an auditorium.

Mrs. W. D. Craig, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Civic League, asks us to remind the farmers, who promised corn for the Halloween party and did not find it convenient to send it in time for the party, that she will still be glad to receive and find sale for same and apply the proceeds to the treasury of the league. It will be a great help to these good women who are working for the upbuilding of both town and county. Those who care to contribute will please leave the corn with Mrs. R. E. Wylie, next door to the fair grounds.

Improved Mail Service.
The Lancaster & Chester Railway Company's local office has furnished us with the following, which we are glad to publish for the benefit of the business men and others to whom it may not be generally known:

The postoffice has instructions to pouch mail via L. & C. for the North on the afternoon to make connection with Southern train No. 32 at Chester. This is the last northbound mail out of Lancaster in the afternoon, and mail closes at 3 p. m. Therefore all mail for this connection should be in the postoffice by or before that time.

Clerk's Sales.
The clerk of the court sold two tracts of land Monday. In the case of John W. Truesdel et al vs. Stanley Truesdel, 24 acres of land near Elgin brought $1,175. The purchasers being Mrs. S. I. Kirk and Miss Nannie Kirk.

In the case of the Farmers Bank & Trust Co. vs. Irene I. Hall, 97 acres in Pleasant Valley was bought by Mr. T. B. Spratt of Fort Mill at $1,500. The latter tract was sold subject to a prior mortgage of $900.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING.

First Regular Session of New Organization.

The first regular meeting of the newly organized Parent-Teacher Association of the Lancaster graded schools, was marked by a good attendance. Two interesting papers were read, one by Mrs. T. L. Hilton, entitled, "Will My Child be Promoted?" The other paper was "The Aim of the School," by Mrs. W. P. Robinson. The committee on by-laws made its report, which was adopted. The banner to be contested for monthly by the several grades was won by the first grade, Miss Joe Foster, teacher. It is given for the greatest number of patrons representing children of certain grades. Miss Foster will keep the pennant until the next regular meeting, when it will go for the next month to that grade which has the largest representation. After the meeting a game of basketball, played between the high school and seventh grade teams for the entertainment of parents and teachers, resulted in a score of 16 to 1 in favor of the high school.

Social News

Of interest to the relatives of the bride in Lancaster will be the following account of her marriage, which we take from The Union Times:

"A brilliant gathering of friends and relatives filled the First Presbyterian church Wednesday to witness the marriage of Miss Etta McDow to Spencer Rice Perrin. Unusual interest had long been manifested in the happy event, because of the prominence of the family connections of the bride and groom and the personality of both.

"The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. McDow and is counted one of Union's most popular and best beloved young women. She is vivacious and has a charming manner, and numbers her friends by the hundreds.

"Mr. Perrin received his degree at Clemson College and since that time has been connected with the Union-Buffalo mills. His fine ability and sterling character are much esteemed in this community where he has lived his whole life and the most cordial felicitations were extended to him and his bride."

Mrs. Perrin is a niece of Mrs. R. L. McIlwain of this county.

Mrs. John H. Poag entertained her interesting music class very delightfully Saturday afternoon at her home on White street. The game of musicians afforded pleasant, as well as profitable, entertainment during the first hour. The hostess then served a course of delicious refreshments. Music and games brought the afternoon to a happy conclusion. Misses Martha VanLandingham and Mary Gildersleeve Wylie, who had received a like number of marks for perfect recitations during the month, cut for the prize, a box of candy made by Mrs. Poag. This was won by Mary Gildersleeve.

An elaborate and most enjoyable Halloween affair was the children's party, at which Miss Ethel Perry entertained Saturday evening at her home on Main street. The entire house was decorated in pumpkins, witches, black cats and other Halloween suggestions. The decorations were most effective, forming an attractive background for the white-robed figures, with faces masked, who went early for an evening of fun. After a parade along the white way, the "ghosts" returned with their hostess to her home, where each drew a string and from the "Witches' pie, pull-out a plum" in the shape of a Halloween souvenir. The dining room was then thrown open and at an appropriately decorated table, dainty refreshments in two courses were served. After refreshments merry games and Halloween sports brought the evening to a happy conclusion.

COUNTY TEACHERS MEET.

Educational Association Holds First Fall Meeting.

The Lancaster County Educational Association held its first meeting of the 1915-1916 session Saturday morning in the auditorium of the Central graded school. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. E. T. Hodges, pastor of the First Methodist church, who also made an excellent address on "School Teaching." Superintendent Wessinger, president of the association, thanked Mr. Hodges in its behalf for his helpful remarks. Then followed a short talk by Mr. V. A. Lingle, county superintendent of education. The association then proceeded to formal reorganization by the unanimous election for the ensuing year of the following officers: President, C. E. Wessinger, Lancaster; vice president, A. L. Humbrs, Kershaw; treasurer, S. E. Miles, Heath Springs; secretary, J. K. Connors, Lancaster. President Wessinger appointed the following program committee: V. A. Lingle, W. L. Feaster, Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Ben Clyburn.

The association will continue to hold monthly meetings, the programs to consist of pedagogical lectures and demonstrations of different grades of school work. At each meeting some prominent educator will address the teachers. Superintendent Wessinger expressed his gratification at the good attendance and urged co-operation between town and rural teachers in school work. At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. W. E. Taylor, president of the Civic League, announced that refreshments would be served to the teachers by the social service committee of the league and the meeting adjourned to a downstairs class room, where Mrs. D. M. Penny, Mrs. J. M. Hood and Miss Juanita Wylie served coffee and sandwiches. The meeting was attended by about thirty teachers and trustees.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

Civic League Entertainment a Jolly Occasion.

Everybody who attended the Halloween frolic last night feels younger for the experience. The barn dance, the square dance and the corn-shucking, as well as the taste of gingerbread and persimmon beer recalled other days when similar experiences quickened the pulses of the participants. Miss Mary Heath Jones won the prize, a basket of candy, for which many of the younger set competed in the barn dance. She made a beautiful Indian princess and was fairer than the famed Minnehaha. The children's costumes were all varied and becoming. Mr. E. H. Bost called out and led the figures of the square dance, in which old and young alike took part.

The corn shucking was most exciting and the captains of the two sides, Clerk of Court Paul Moore and Mr. Walter P. Davis, each backed by good working corps of helpers strove for the prize, a cake which was won by Mr. Moore's side. An interesting feature was the popular candy vender, Mrs. J. P. Hunter, who as "The Pink Lady" made quite a hit. An auction sale of cakes was conducted with Mr. J. C. Brewington as auctioneer.

NO REGULAR FORECAST.

Weekly Bulletin Will Not be Sent Out Until Crop Season 1916.

Mr. Richard Sullivan of Columbia, section director of the United States weather bureau, issued yesterday the following statement, which we publish for the information of our readers:

To Recipients of the Weekly Weather Forecast:
I am directed by the chief of the United States weather bureau to inform you that the weekly weather forecast of October 26, 1915, will be the last regular weather forecast issued until the beginning of the crop season in the spring of 1916. As conditions may warrant and occasion require during the interval, forecasts in extension of regular period may be issued for distribution, in which case same will be printed and mailed to your address as during crop season of 1915.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our neighbors for their kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our darling baby. May God's richest blessings rest upon them all.

PRIZES AWARDED.

School Boys Who Won in Clean Up Campaign.

Although many grown-ups failed to enlist in the "Clean Up" movement last week, the boys of grammar school age took a lively interest therein, and there are tangible evidences of the good work accomplished by them. Prizes had previously been offered for the biggest piles of trash collected in four divisions of the town and these were won by Martin Crawford and J. C. Sowell in the northeast section; Walter Davis, Marion Sistare and Ivy Poovey in the northwest, with special prizes also in the northwest given to James Porter and Claude Davis, who did such efficient work as to receive this extra award; Walter Stewman and Leonard Stewman in the southwest and William Frost in the southeast. The Civic League issued checks for one dollar to each locality and these were presented to the winners at chapel at the Central graded school Monday morning, Superintendent Wessinger taking occasion to teach the children the proper way of endorsing checks.

GOES TO VIRGINIA.

Mr. P. W. Hardin Leaves L. & C. Railway.

The Lancaster friends of Mr. P. W. Hardin, who formerly lived here, will regret to learn that he has given up his position with the L. & C. and gone to Virginia to accept a position with the Southern Railway. Concerning this change The Chester News says:

"Mr. P. W. Hardin, who for the past ten years has been roadmaster of the Lancaster & Chester Railway has accepted a position as construction master with the Southern Railway and will leave in the next few days for Charlottesville, Va., to take charge of the double-tracking being done near there.

"Mr. Hardin has been engaged in railroad construction for the past thirty-five years and is considered to be one of the best trackmen in this section."
